Where is your little wee housie?”

2. The Sun Goes on a Holiday

Everyone enjoys a holiday. So, one fine Sunday the Sun also took a holiday. It suddenly disappeared from the sky. Darkness covered the earth.

A squirrel was chasing its friend. It stopped and wondered at the darkness. It guessed something was wrong and ran home. A little plant searched for the Sun. It couldn’t grow without the Sun’s rays. Flowers and leaves of the plant bent low to the ground. Other trees also missed the Sun. Mother bird peeped out of her nest and whispered to its little ones about the darkness. She was sad because she couldn’t go out to find food for them. The bee couldn’t find any honey because the flowers didn’t bloom, so it went back to its hive. The Sun wasn’t there, so the wind got stuck up the hill.

Men, women and children stopped working. They opened their windows and said, “What happened to the Sun?” It was very quiet everywhere and the warmth of the Sun was missing too. All of them prayed for the Sun to rise.

The Sun looked down from its abode. The stillness on the earth shocked the Sun. The Sun felt sorry. The earth seemed lifeless. This made the Sun very sad. So he decided to stop his holiday and start shining again.
The plants grew and flowers bloomed. Bees and birds started singing. The river flowed joyfully and the wind blew. Mother bird was happy and everyone on the earth began to work!

Indeed, the Sun can never go on a holiday!

4. A Masai Home

Masai is a tribe that lives in East Africa. The Masais like to live in small traditional houses on the grassland plains near their cattle or their fields. The Masais women build their own homes.

First, they draw the shape of the house, a rectangle, on the ground. They make a frame by weaving together branches and twigs. Then, they pack grass and dung over the outside to keep the building dry. This is necessary because the weather is moist.

There is just one room inside a Masai house. Almost six people sleep together in one large bed made of large branches covered with hide. The mother and children sleep in an inner corner of the house.

In the centre of the house is a fireplace. Fire burns there. It is used for cooking, warmth and light. There are no windows in the Masai house. Only one opening is kept to let light in and smoke out.
Cattle are an important part of the Masai family. Young calves and goats live in a special den inside the house. They drink milk in a long vessel called calabash made from hollowed out gourd.

TRADITIONAL
Once upon a time, there was a little girl called Alice. One day she had a very strange and interesting dream. Would you like to hear about her dream?

(Well, this was the very first thing that happened in her dream)

A white rabbit came running by, in a great hurry. As it passed Alice, it stopped and took his watch out of his pocket.

(Have you ever seen a Rabbit that had a watch?)

“Oh, dear, oh dear! I’ll be too late”, said the rabbit.

Alice heard and watched the rabbit and ran after it. She wanted to see where the rabbit was going. She followed the rabbit and tumbled down into the rabbit-hole. There she fell fast asleep.
After sometime, she suddenly woke up, jumped on to her feet and ran after the rabbit again. But there was no rabbit! She found herself in a big hall with doors all around it. All the doors were locked. So, she couldn’t get out of the hall.

There was a little table in the middle of the hall. A little key was lying on the table. She picked up the key and tried to unlock the doors. She tried to open them one by one and when she came to the last little door, it got opened!
She could bend down to just peep through the door and she saw a beautiful garden outside. But she could not go out through that tiny door. She became very sad. She locked the door and went back to the table. She kept the key there. She saw a small bottle with a label ‘DRINK ME’. She tasted it, and do you know what happened to her?
She got smaller and smaller, and smaller... till at last she was just the size of a little doll.
She was happy now. She ran to the door. But it was locked. Then she ran back. But, alas! (Why did she become sad?)

A hare lived in a forest. He had two friends—a monkey and an otter. They spent a lot of time together.

One day, a hermit came to the forest. He was very tired and hungry.

The otter was catching fish. The hermit went to him. “I’m hungry,” he said.

“I have a few fish,” said the otter. “Please, take them.” “But I don’t eat fish,” said the hermit. “Have you anything else?” “Sorry,” said the otter. “I have nothing else.”

The monkey was eating nuts. The hermit went to him. “I’m hungry,” said the hermit. “Could you give me some food, please?”
“I have a few nuts,” said the monkey.

“Oh! but I want a lot of them,” said the hermit,

“I’m very hungry.”

“I’m sorry. I have only a few,” said the monkey.

“I’ll ask the hare then,” said the hermit.

The hare was eating grass.

The hermit went to him.

“I’m so hungry,” said the hermit.

“Please, could you give me some food?”

“I have a lot of grass,” said the hare.

“But I don’t eat grass!” said the hermit with a smile.

“Have you anything else?”

“No, I’m sorry,” said the hare.

“I’m very hungry and I’m tired,” said the hermit.

“What shall I do now?”

The hare thought for a minute.

“Wait,” he said. “Please don’t go away.”

The hare brought some wood.

He struck two stones together and made a fire.

“You can eat me,” he said.

And jumped into the fire.
But the fire did not burn him!
He looked out, but the hermit was not there.
An angel stood in front of him.
He took the hare in his arms and flew up. He put him on the Moon.
Look up at the Moon.
You can still see the hare on it.

Once upon a time, there was a gardener called Jagatu. He was employed in the king’s garden. It was a beautiful garden. Jagatu used to spend the whole day in the garden. He used to go home only at night.

One night, however, he had to remain in the garden. Suddenly he heard a loud noise. Jagatu hid himself behind a big tree in great fear. He saw a large elephant descending from the sky. It was roaming about in the garden. After a while, Jagatu left his hiding-place, and sat down on the edge of a tank. As he sat there he said to himself, “In my whole life, I have never seen such an enormous elephant. But I remember about a heavenly elephant, called ‘Airavata’. No doubt, this is it.” He got up and began to walk quietly after the elephant. It ate various fruits and roots that grew in the garden. Jagatu caught its long tail, when it was about to ascend to the sky again.

When they arrived in heaven Jagatu let go the elephant’s tail. Airavata departed for Indra’s palace and Jagatu began to roam about in the heaven. Everything was of such a huge size that the sight filled him with amazement. He got some betel-leaves (pan-patta) and some betel-nuts (supari). Both the betel-leaves and the betel-nuts were very big.

Next night, Airavata went down to the garden with Jagatu hanging on to its tail. As soon as they got there, Jagatu let go the tail, and hurried back home. His wife was looking for him. As soon as she saw him coming, she ran to meet him and cried, “Where have you been?” Jagatu, without saying a word, brought out the big betel-leaves and betel nuts. At the sight of them his wife was filled with joy. “Where did you get these?” she exclaimed.

Jagatu, then, told his wife all about his adventures. He also told her not to tell it to anyone. But she told the whole story to a friend of hers and soon everybody in the village knew about it. The villagers asked Jagatu to take them also to heaven.

That night, when the elephant was about to depart, Jagatu quickly got behind him and caught his tail. Then, they all held one another in turn. On their way, a friend of Jagatu’s wife asked her, “How big was the betel-nut that your husband brought home?” His wife repeated the question to Jagatu. Jagatu said that he would answer that later, but she insisted.
Jagatu lost patience and spreading his hands, said “This big”. As he spread his arms to show the size of the nut, he lost his grip on the elephant’s tail. And in a moment they all came tumbling down.

Maa and Bapu had put on their new clothes. They were going to town to sell the vegetables grown in their small field. Bhola was very happy. He was not going with his parents. He was left in charge to take care of Dadima (80 years old), a calf, a kid, a rabbit, ducks, a hen with chicks and the small vegetable field.

His mother warned him. “Don’t forget to feed the cattle and the birds. Keep an eye on the rabbit. It is playing there on the green grass of the vegetable field.”

His father advised him, “Take care of Dadima, keep her room warm with charcoal and give her warm milk. Give her medicine on time.”

Bhola promised nodding his head. He reminded them to bring some sweets, colour pencils and a drawing book.

Their bullock cart was going through the narrow street of the village. The waving hands of parents were still visible. Bhola helped Dadima to lie down on the cot lying in a corner of the courtyard. He went to the backyard to bring some coal for the ‘angithi’ to keep Dadima warm, as she was feeling very cold. He saw the calf making sound ‘Mo - oo - oo’. “Oh! you want some grass!” Bhola kept down his bag, picked up a bundle of grass and ran to the calf.

In the corner of the courtyard he saw the kid jumping and crying “Mein ... Wha-a-at about Me-ee-ee?”

He kept down his bundle of grass and ran outside the house to get some fresh green leaves for the kid. Only then he saw the rabbit in the vegetable field. He forgot to collect leaves for the kid and rushed towards the rabbit. With a stick, he pushed the rabbit back to its place. Coming back to the house he found the hen with its chicks making noise - ‘Kut - Kut Kuttakakoon’.

He jumped to get some corn in the basket for them. There in the courtyard an army of duck and ducklings was marching, making noise ‘Quack-Quack ......’ Bhola kept his basket of corn on the floor. He ran to get some water from the well behind the house and came back with a bucket full of water. He kept the bucket also in the middle of the courtyard for the ducks and feeling tired went to the verandah where Dadima was sleeping in the sunshine.
He rolled down on the floor and went to sleep. A loud barking woke up Dadima. She cried, ‘Oh, My God!’ ‘What have you done, Bhola?’ Bhola sprang on his feet, blinking his eyes. He could see the ducks flapping their wings. They had rolled down the corn on the courtyard floor.

The hen and her chicks were feeding themselves. Outside the house the kid was chewing some green leaves of vegetable on the vegetable patch. The rabbit was trying to go towards the well; the calf was running and jumping here and there with some grass in its mouth.

Suddenly, he heard the jingling bells of the bullock cart coming near the house. He ran to it and jumped into the bullock cart. Clinging to his mother’s lap, he murmured, ‘Oh! What a lot there was to do in the house, Maa!’

They all went inside the house with the things. The parents noticed that no one was complaining or making noise - not even the hen and chicks, ducks and ducklings, the kid and the calf. Dadima was sleeping in her cot. Bapu patted Bhola’s shoulder, “So, our little one.... ‘left in charge’, how was the day?”

They all smiled slowly. Bhola was happy to see the things that Maa and Bapu had brought for him.

13. Gopal Bhand and Mahagyani

Raja Krishna Chandra ruled over a part of Bengal about two hundred years ago. His court jester was Gopal Bhand. Though Gopal Bhand had not studied books, he was a very wise man.

Once, a very learned man, Mahagyani Pandit came to the court. He spoke all the Indian languages fluently and perfectly. He had good knowledge of philosophy and religion.

He answered all the questions very wisely. People were amazed to talk to him but no one could identify his mother tongue.

Whenever they asked him, he smiled arrogantly. He said, “A truly wise man will easily know my mother tongue.”

Raja Krishna Chandra was very upset. So he announced a reward for anyone who could tell the Pandit’s mother tongue.

All the scholars listened to Mahagyani attentively. But no one could identify his mother tongue. “Shame on you”, said the king angrily. All the scholars were silent. Gopal Bhand stood up hesitantly. He said, “Your Highness, give me a chance.” “How could you tell?” asked the king. “Your Highness! I won’t talk. He will tell you himself”, answered Gopal Bhand.

The next morning the king was walking in his garden. Gopal Bhand ran up to him quickly and said, “I have told Mahagyani Pandit that you are going to honour him with a garland of roses.” “What!” said the king surprisingly.

The next moment the king saw Mahagyani Pandit walking in expectantly. He was in silk clothes.

Gopal Bhand hid himself behind the hedge. As soon as the Pandit came near the hedge, he put his leg out and tripped the Pandit. The Mahagyani pandit fell down on the freshly watered ground. He sat up and shouted at Gopal Bhand in his mother tongue.

Gopal Bhand said, “Your Highness, now you know, what the Pandit’s mother tongue is!”

Mahagyani Pandit got up and said to Gopal Bhand, “You wise man, you have trapped me intelligently,” and he went away.

Project

15. A Nickel’s Worth of Fun

“I found a nickel!” Jerry cried.
“So what?” his friend Bruce asked.
“Now I can buy a birthday present for my little sister, Sally,” Jerry replied.
“A nickel isn’t worth much. You can’t buy anything for a nickel,” Bruce said.
“Yes, I can,” Jerry answered.
“What?”, Bruce asked.
Jerry drew a deep breath. Finally he said, “I am going shopping with Sally and my mother this afternoon. I’m sure we will find a really special gift.” Bruce just laughed.

After lunch, Jerry, Sally, and their mother went shopping. They visited a toy store and a dime store. Jerry searched in each store. He couldn’t buy anything for Sally because everything cost more than a nickel. “What can I buy for a nickel?”, Jerry finally asked his mother.

“A few pieces of gum,” Mother replied.
“But I don’t think that would be good for Sally. Why not give her a picture that you drew instead?”
“I will do that too. I still want to get a gift Sally will always remember,” Jerry decided. “So I’ll keep searching.”

Then, the three of them went shopping at a food store. Jerry searched for a present, then he stopped in front of a sign.
Jerry looked at the white, wheat and honey bread. “Even marked down, they cost too much”, he decided.
Then Jerry saw a crushed loaf. “I can buy that!” he decided.
“But what will Sally do with it?” Mother asked.
“If we can stop at the lake on the way home, I’ll show you,” Jerry replied.
Soon Jerry, Sally, and mother were standing by the lake. A few ducks came swimming by. Jerry gave his little sister the loaf of crushed bread.

“For me?”, Sally asked. She could not remember ever before having so much bread to feed the ducks.

“All for you,” Jerry said, “Happy birthday.”

Sally took some bread and broke it into little bits. She began to throw them into the water. This soon drew a crowd of ducks around them.

“ You don’t have to crowd,” Sally said smiling, “because this time I have enough for everybody.”

A few birds came flying by. Sally began to throw some bread on the grass for them. Then she watched as they landed and ate. “This is my best present ever”, she said. “Will you buy me a loaf of bread again, Jerry?”

“The next time if I find a nickel,” Jerry promised. When Jerry saw Bruce again, the first thing his friend asked was, “Well, were you able to find anything that cost a nickel? “Yes,” Jerry replied.

“What?” Bruce asked in surprise. “I found a nickel’s worth of fun”, Jerry said smiling. “That’s the most wonderful birthday present of all.”

Bhalapur is a village nearly 84 kilometers from the block office of Mohla in the Rajnandagaon district of Chhattisgarh. Today, on what was a 12-hectare plot of deforested land, stands a dense green forest. In the mid eighties, Vikram of Bhalapur organised all the women in the village, largely dalits and adivasis, into Mahila Mandal.

The Mahila Mandal had discussions on village problems. It was evident from the discussions that the greatest problem was collecting fire wood. The village forest was shrinking. Thanks to the felling of trees by insensitive people.
The forestland at the time was full of stumps of felled trees. For protection from grazing animals, the women dug deep trenches all around the deforested area. They stood up as guards against poachers and timber mafia.

Soon leaves started to sprout on the stumps. Today, a dense forest stands on the outskirts of the village. The dry twigs fulfill the locals’ need for fire wood and the biodiversity of the new forest is a reward of their efforts. Later, plantations were done by the locals. The successful initiative has also inspired those in the village who had initially opposed the effort. It is not big projects and money that will protect the forests. But if due importance is given to local needs, people will come forward themselves to protect our forests.
